

TYNESIDE 114 SUB AQUA CLUB

SPRING TRIP TO DIVE THE GARVELLACHS, NEAR OBAN

ORGANISER: Dave Mitchell

Contact: 07914 539564

Email: david.mitchell76@tesco.net

DATES:

Departing from Newcastle on Friday 9 May 2014

Diving on Saturday 10 May and Sunday 11 May (possibly Monday morning too, if you wish).

Returning home on Sunday evening (or Monday afternoon, if you wish).

ACCOMMODATION:

Luxury self-catering cottage (Seabank), overlooking the sea.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS OF DIVER:

Suitable for confident Sports Divers and above who have previously dived in the sea in 2014.

COST:

£150 for two days hard boat diving and 2 or 3 nights in the self-catering house.

Other costs are air, food, beer and travel to Oban area.

Deposit of £40 secures place. Cheque payable to D.Mitchell (online bank transfer also OK).

AIMS:

To experience outstanding scenic diving in this special conservation area, rich in diverse marine life. Great for u/w photography and critter watching. Enjoy beautiful landscapes around the south of Mull, with a chance of spotting sea eagles, dolphins and whales.

Porpoise II is a well-equipped and spacious hard boat with a very experienced diver-skipper.

See www.sealife-adventures.com

NON-DIVERS:

It is not planned to offer spaces in the main house for non-diving partners, at this stage. But couples can easily be accommodated in local B & B.
